

Aspiring full-stack software engineer.

I am recent graduate of Florida State University and current Full-Stack bootcamp student with Columbia Engineering seeking a full-time position in digital design and development where I am able to collaborate with a dynamic team. I have a multi-disciplinary background crossing web and graphic design, communications, and social innovation & entrepreneurship.

Work Experience

Business Fitness, Inc

January 2020 - Present
Web Designer and Manager

- Website design and digital branding consultation.
- Wireframes and designs using Adobe Illustrator and Xd.
- Wordpress development and continued updating of content.

Mercer County Democratic Committee

September 2019 - Present
Volunteer Website Design and Management

- Creation of Wordpress site and routine maintenance of blog updates and further site development.
- Continued consultancy on digital marketing and branding.

223_ Agency

February 2019 - April 2019
Web Development Intern

- Front-end development using Local by Flywheel to update and maintain Wordpress client sites.
- Refactored existing code and implemented best-practice solutions.
- Client and team collaboration through Basecamp.

Woven Futures

January 2018 - May 2018
Marketing Strategy and Creative Development

- Collaborated on team initiatives and personal projects over a semester-long internship focused on social entrepreneurship.
- Worked directly with founder to develop intentional and transparent marketing strategies.
- Display creation and presentation for product expositions and community-based initiatives.

Education

Columbia Engineering

Full-Stack Certificate Program

April 2020 - October 2020
Technical skills developed in front-end, back-end, databases, development tools, and fundamentals in computer science.

Florida State University

Bachelor of Science    GPA: 3.468

August 2015 - May 2019
Major in International Affairs with a concentration in Public Administration. Second major in Communications and Digital Humanities.

International Programs

Bali, Indonesia	London, United Kingdom	Valencia, Spain
Summer 2018	Spring 2017	Fall 2016
30-day immersion program in social innovation and entrepreneurship to delve into research and design thinking of social, economic, and environmental sustainability.	Four-month program with curriculum focused in British culture, photography, and public speaking.	Four-month program with curriculum focused in Spanish language, literature, and cultural analysis.

Campus Involvement

FSU Innovators

February 2019 - May 2019

- Marketing Strategy and Creative Development for FSU Innovators, an RSO through the Innovation Hub at FSU.
- Serving on the Executive Board, meeting twice a week to organize events and meetings for the general body and creating promotional materials.
- Organization and presentation of hosted discussions and events.

Change Makers @ FSU

January 2019 - May 2019

- Sat as Communications Chair on the Executive Board for RSO's planning and design process.
- Aided in the development of mission statement, Bylaws, and descriptions of Executive Board Positions roles and responsibilities.
- Creation of promotional content for campus outreach.

SIE @ FSU

January 2018 - May 2019

Marketing Strategy and Creative Development

- Volunteered efforts for establishing and developing an ecosystem of campus, community, and global innovators and social entrepreneurs.
- Community and international efforts of collective impact, social innovation, and intentional design.
- Developed logo for ecosystem using Adobe Illustrator and Photoshop.
- Use of design thinking and intentional design to ideate and co-design on creative projects.

Arabic Division Outreach Program

September 2015 - February 2017

Content Creation

- Assisted in the re-creation of a grant-based outreach program with Dr. Zeina Schlenoff and Dr. Defne Bilir designed to inform and educate young students about cultural diversity in the Middle East and North Africa.
- Designed and oversaw flyers, pamphlets, and promotional materials.
- Aided in organization and hosting of events on campus tailored to increase awareness.
- Assisted in creating lesson plans for local elementary and middle school students.